ABOUT RENNES

School of Business, FRANCE

Rennes School of Business (RSB), France is a globally respected Grande École de Commerce established in 1990 in Rennes, the capital of Brittany, with additional presence in Paris. Known for its triple accreditation—AACSB, AMBA, and EQUIS—RSB is part of the elite ~1 % of business schools worldwide meeting the highest standards of international business education and academic quality.

RSB delivers a broad portfolio of Bachelor's, Master's, M.Sc. , PhD, and Executive Education programs across management, finance, marketing, luxury brand management, supply chain, and digital business, with most courses taught entirely in English to support a truly global student experience.

Its Master in Management (Programme Grande École) is ranked among the top 100 in the world by the Financial Times 2025, reflecting the school's international outlook, teaching excellence, and strong professional outcomes. RSB's community is deeply international: over 100 nationalities are represented on campus, a majority of programs are delivered in English, and the faculty includes a high percentage of international scholars, reinforcing global perspectives in teaching and research. Students benefit from a wide network of 350+ global partner universities, double-degree options, and structured exchange programs that enhance intercultural competence and professional mobility.

On career outcomes, Rennes School of Business reports strong employability metrics with graduates across programs frequently securing employment within six months of graduation and average salaries often around €60,000 annually—particularly for Master in Management alumni—with placement rates exceeding 85–89 % in recent cohorts.

The school's dedicated Career Center supports students with coaching, internships, recruitment events, and employer engagement, preparing them for careers in sectors such as consulting, finance, marketing, operations, and technology.

Although the institution does not publish an official public list of hiring partners, Rennes SB graduates are consistently recruited by major global and French firms such as Accenture, Deloitte, EY, KPMG, Google, Microsoft, Hermès, Capgemini, Danone, TotalEnergies, Amazon, and L'Oréal—illustrating strong industry demand for its alumni across diverse corporate environments.

With strong academic credentials, a highly international community, extensive global partnerships, and excellent professional outcomes, Rennes School of Business offers students a comprehensive, globally oriented education that prepares them for leadership roles in today's interconnected business landscape.

Rankings and Accreditations

- Rennes School of Business holds the prestigious AACSB, EQUIS, and AMBA accreditations, a distinction achieved by less than 1% of business schools worldwide, confirming the highest global standards in teaching, research, and industry relevance.
- Fully recognised by the French Ministry of Higher Education, ensuring international degree validity across Europe and globally.
- Membership of France's most elite academic association, Conférence des Grandes Écoles (CGE), representing top-tier institutions known for academic excellence and strong employer trust.
- Consistently featured in the Financial Times Global Rankings, highlighting its international outlook, faculty diversity, and graduate outcomes.
- Several programs at Rennes SB are recognised by the European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD), reinforcing global academic quality.

FRANCE

Best Destination For Global Learners

1. Globally Respected Higher Education System

France is one of the world's top study destinations, hosting 400,000+ international students across leading universities and Grandes Écoles. French degrees are globally recognised for their academic rigour, research excellence, and strong industry integration, particularly in business, analytics, and technology.

2. Strong Economy & Data-Driven Job Market

As one of Europe's largest economies, France is home to global leaders such as BNP Paribas, Capgemini, Accenture, L'Oréal, Airbus, Orange, and TotalEnergies. With rapid growth in data analytics, AI, consulting, finance, and digital transformation, France offers strong career opportunities for analytics and business graduates.

3. Excellent Quality of Life & Student Benefits

France consistently ranks high for quality of life, healthcare, public infrastructure, and cultural richness. International students benefit from affordable public education, subsidised housing support (CAF), student transport discounts, and access to world-class healthcare, making it a cost-effective European study destination.

4. Attractive Post-Study Work & Career Pathways

International graduates can stay back in France for up to 24 months to search for jobs under the post-study residence permit. France also offers clear pathways to long-term residence and EU-wide career mobility, making it an ideal base for launching a European career.

About Rennes

Rennes is a fast-growing innovation, technology, and education hub in western France, widely recognized for its strong focus on data, digital transformation, and applied research. As the capital of the Brittany region, Rennes has emerged as a key center for IT, cybersecurity, data analytics, telecom, and smart systems, making it highly relevant for students pursuing careers in data and business analytics.

The city hosts major employers and research organizations such as Orange, Capgemini, Atos, Thales, Sopra Steria, CGI, Accenture, and several high-growth tech startups. Rennes also benefits from close academic-industry collaboration through technology parks, innovation clusters, and research labs, offering students strong exposure to real-world data and analytics projects.

Rennes is consistently ranked among France's best student cities, known for its affordable cost of living, safe environment, and excellent quality of life compared to Paris or Lyon. With a vibrant international student community, efficient public transport, and a rich cultural scene, the city offers an ideal balance between academic focus and lifestyle.

Strategically located just 1.5 hours from Paris by high-speed train, Rennes provides easy access to France's major business and employment markets while offering a more student-friendly environment. For students at Rennes School of Business, studying in Rennes means building data-driven careers in a city designed for innovation, learning, and long-term professional growth.

Why Pursue M.Sc. International Accounting, Management Control and Auditing at Rennes School of Business?

Student Reviews

I would like to extend my gratitude to the entire Amity Online - Study Abroad team who made it so easy for me to live my dream of experiencing overseas education. They helped me at every step of the study abroad application process, which left me with ample time to focus only on my academics.

Eishvak Sengupta

To any student considering abroad education, I strongly recommend the Amity Online - Study Abroad Pathway program since it's more than just a pathway to your master's degree abroad; it's a transformative journey of personal and academic growth. From the initial consultation to the moment I stepped foot on campus overseas, the support I received was unparalleled.

Piyush Arora

I am glad to have been a part of the Amity Online - Study Abroad Pathway Program. According to me, what sets the program apart is its personalised approach. Unlike other service providers, they didn't push me to pick from the pool of several foreign universities but, took the time to understand my academic interests, career goals, and financial constraints to recommend the best-fit institutions. This tailored guidance was invaluable and was a great add-on to the many benefits of studying abroad.
