ABOUT RENNES

School of Business, FRANCE

Rennes School of Business (RSB), France is a globally respected Grande École de Commerce established in 1990 in Rennes, the capital of Brittany, with additional presence in Paris. Known for its triple accreditation—AACSB, AMBA, and EQUIS—RSB is part of the elite ~1 % of business schools worldwide meeting the highest standards of international business education and academic quality.

RSB delivers a broad portfolio of Bachelor's, Master's, M.Sc. , PhD, and Executive Education programs across management, finance, marketing, luxury brand management, supply chain, and digital business, with most courses taught entirely in English to support a truly global student experience.

Its Master in Management (Programme Grande École) is ranked among the top 100 in the world by the Financial Times 2025, reflecting the school's international outlook, teaching excellence, and strong professional outcomes. RSB's community is deeply international: over 100 nationalities are represented on campus, a majority of programs are delivered in English, and the faculty includes a high percentage of international scholars, reinforcing global perspectives in teaching and research. Students benefit from a wide network of 350+ global partner universities, double-degree options, and structured exchange programs that enhance intercultural competence and professional mobility.

On career outcomes, Rennes School of Business reports strong employability metrics with graduates across programs frequently securing employment within six months of graduation and average salaries often around €60,000 annually—particularly for Master in Management alumni—with placement rates exceeding 85–89 % in recent cohorts.

The school's dedicated Career Center supports students with coaching, internships, recruitment events, and employer engagement, preparing them for careers in sectors such as consulting, finance, marketing, operations, and technology.

Although the institution does not publish an official public list of hiring partners, Rennes SB graduates are consistently recruited by major global and French firms such as Accenture, Deloitte, EY, KPMG, Google, Microsoft, Hermès, Capgemini, Danone, TotalEnergies, Amazon, and L'Oréal—illustrating strong industry demand for its alumni across diverse corporate environments.

With strong academic credentials, a highly international community, extensive global partnerships, and excellent professional outcomes, Rennes School of Business offers students a comprehensive, globally oriented education that prepares them for leadership roles in today's interconnected business landscape.

Rankings and Accreditations

- Rennes School of Business holds the prestigious AACSB, EQUIS, and AMBA accreditations, a distinction achieved by less than 1% of business schools worldwide, confirming the highest global standards in teaching, research, and industry relevance.
- Fully recognised by the French Ministry of Higher Education, ensuring international degree validity across Europe and globally.
- Membership of France's most elite academic association, Conférence des Grandes Écoles (CGE), representing top-tier institutions known for academic excellence and strong employer trust.
- Consistently featured in the Financial Times Global Rankings, highlighting its international outlook, faculty diversity, and graduate outcomes.
- Several programs at Rennes SB are recognised by the European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD), reinforcing global academic quality.
